Right Now Is the Time to Dispose of Odds and Ends Around the Home or Farm For Which You No Longer Have Use. Turn Them Into Money With a Want Ad

Roberta Semple Is Awaiting Reply to Her Slander Action

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Roberta Semple, ousted from the board of directors of Angelus temple, awaited today the filing of an answer in the $150,000 slander suit she had brought against Wilfred Andrews, attorney for the temple and for her mother, Mrs. Almee Semple McPherson.

Meanwhile it was indicated that David Hutton, last of Mrs. McPherson's three husbands, might be called as a witness in a slander action in which Rheba Crawford, dismissed as associate pastor of the temple, demands $1,080,000 from Mrs. McPherson.

Joseph Palmer, Miss Crawford's attorney, said he may call Hutton to testify to the authenticity of letters purporting to have been written to him by Mrs. McPherson prior to their divorce.

Miss Semple, dismissed from membership on the board of the Echo Park Evangelistic association, holding company for Angelus temple, has been residing with her grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, since she left the temple parsonage after a disagreement with her mother.

Island Radicals Lose Point When Vote Is Delayed

Manila, P. I., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Amid cries of "dictatorship" and "tyranny" the Philippine national assembly has approved a law postponing the election of provincial, municipal and city officials for a year and empowering the president of the commonwealth to retain them in office unless their successors are named by him.

The elections, originally scheduled to be held the first Tuesday in June, 1937, were postponed to a 1938 date to be fixed later by the assembly.

The bill, an administration measure, was offered because commonwealth officials, recognizing a radical movement throughout the islands, feared that an election campaign at this time would be seized upon by the radicals to foment trouble.

"Shrinking Man" Is Gaining Weight

Minneapolis, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The "shrinking man" of Minneapolis—a 32-year-old Hans Nelson—cheerfully pointed to a 15-pound gain in weight as evidence today that he was making a comeback.

The shrunken painter, victim of the bone disease ostiamacula, dwindled in stature from five feet 10 inches to five feet and it weight from 190 pounds to 140 in 13 years.

But corrective dieting and injections of calcium at the University of Minnesota hospital have enabled him to throw off that "tired feeling," he said, and to resume normal pursuits.

University of Minnesota medical authorities said that while Nelson is gaining strength the shrinkage has not been definitely checked.

Osthamalacia is a softening of bone tissues due to lack of calcium, attending physicians said.

Slight Change in Prices of Meats

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Wholesale prices of some beef and fresh pork cuts advanced slightly during November, but dressed lamb declined 9 to 14 per cent and fresh veal went a little lower, the Institute of American Meat Packers' monthly review showed today.

Quotations on better grades of fresh beef advanced 4 to 9 per cent, while most other grades were steady to slightly lower. Veal prices dropped from 2 to 6 per cent.

Production of meat during November was estimated about 28 per cent greater than in November, 1935, largely because of the sharp gain in the output of pork and lard, estimated at not less than 65 per cent. The number of hogs dressed was estimated to be 80 to 85 per cent greater. Hog prices, however, changed little, rising slightly.

Irregulars Demand Surrender of City

Kalgan, Chahar Province, China, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Irregular Mongolian commanders from Chahar province have demanded the surrender of the city of Pailingmiao within 24 hours, Chinese sources reported today.

General Fu Tso-yi, Suiyuan governor, whose forces captured Pailingmiao from invading troops last week, was declared to have refused the ultimatum. Some sources believed renewal of irregular attacks on Suiyuanese forces was imminent.

(Chinese reports from Tientsin declared two divisions of Japanese soldiers were en route to assist the Chahar invader).

DEFENSE OF KING.

Toronto, Nov. 30.—(Canadian Press)—Lady Astor told a Women's Press club meeting today "There is no man in the world who has done his job better than our king." "I think," the American-born peeress added, "he is doing it as well some people would like to feel he is not doing it well. There is no man as loyal to the empire."

Freshman Women's Honorary Pledges

Betty Ehrlein, Roundup; Mildred McIntyre, Missoula, and Eileen Jenson, Sidney, were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, national freshman women's honorary scholastic group, last week. Miss Ehrlein, a member of Mortar Board, senior women's scholastic group, will be senior adviser to the organization.

Alpha Lambda Delta is a new organization on the Montana campus, having been installed April 28, 1936. At that time 11 pledges were named and Birdera Donaldson, vice president of the national organization and dean of women at Doane college, Crete, Neb., installed the new chapter and conducted the initiation ceremonies.

Alpha Lambda Delta was established at the University of Illinois in 1924. Members of Mortar Board petitioned for the local chapter of the group. To be eligible for pledging a freshman woman must maintain a scholastic average of 2.2 (slightly higher than a B average).

Army Is Probing Death of Officer

Menlo Park, Cal., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Army authorities today investigated an airplane crash in which A. S. Gregory, reserve officer was killed here.

Gregory, copy reader for a San Francisco newspaper, perished in flames which broke out as the plane struck.

The 40-year-old reserve captain came to San Francisco in 1924 after serving in the Army during the World war and engaging in newspaper work in the Middle West and ranching in Montana.

Relatives include his widow, Mrs. Maizie Gregory, formerly of Butte, Mont.

NEW HOUSING PROGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A housing program which won't wreck the government" was described by Chairman Steagall, Democrat, Alabama, of the House Banking committee today as "the most stupendous problem" facing the incoming Congress.

In the closing days of the last session, Steagall's committee wrestled with the Wagner-Ellenbogen bill to provide a long-range program of low-cost housing construction, but failed to report it to the House.

REFORMATORY SENTENCE.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Fifteen-year-old Grady Odell Bowden drew a 10-year reformatory sentence today for the slaying of his stepfather, Ruben A. Baker, 27. There may be a time for all things but the wise man tackles only one thing at a time.

Grand Opera Star Finds Ideal Man

Baltimore, Nov. 30. — (AP) — Rose Ponselle, vivid star of grand opera, has been looking for her Prince Charming to come along.

He appeared barely a year ago—tall, dark, handsome and romantic. She met him, almost by chance, at the theater—Carle A. Jackson, young Baltimore business man—and now it will soon be wedding bells for the two.

The engagement of the beautiful singer of the Metropolitan Opera company and the son of Mayor Howard W. Jackson was announced last night.

It has been a long time—10 years —since Miss Ponselle told of her ideal for a husband in an interview on "Why Have You Not Married." Yet friends say the quiet, serious-minded young innamorata man she is to be married to is the personification she gave to a tee:

1. He must be a man of complete understanding and tolerance.
2. He must be trusting.
3. He must not be of my profession, but must be a business man with an understanding and the bigness to put up with the conditions a professional woman's husband must face.
4. He must be a man I can look up to and respect.
5. He must be romantic and very sentimental.
6. He must not be a man who would marry a woman with a substantial income and expect her to support him.

James Buchanan was the only President of the United States who was a bachelor during his entire term.
